

Southampton Centre

CIOB in collaboration with Blake Morgan, one of the leading law firms, based in the South, invites you to an employment law and apprenticeship levy update.

An ideal opportunity to network with refreshments included .

Employment Law & Apprenticeship Levy Update

Two HOT topics you will not want to miss with Q & A sessions

Key Employment Issues

Sarah Peacock, Partner at Blake Morgan, advises on all areas of employment law, contentious and non-contentious. She regularly advises on business restructuring, changes to terms and conditions of employment, redundancy Sarah and Natalie will address issues within the construction workplace including dealing with conduct and capability issues (a quiet chat versus a formal disciplinary); flexible working (benefits versus disadvantages); and other topical issues.

Apprenticeship Levy update

Tony Moss & Matt Butcher from Bournemouth & Poole College will give a summary into the changes of employing apprentices and how it will affect you, including What is the levy? What additional funding is available for employers? Who will have to pay a levy and how much will it cost a levy payer?
