

Speaker profiles

Title: Employment Law & Apprenticeship Levy Update
Date: Tuesday 25 April 2017
Venue: Blake Morgan, New Kings Court, Tollgate, Chandler's Ford, Eastleigh SO53 3LG

Sarah Peacock, Partner – Blake Morgan Law

Sarah has practised exclusively in the field of employment law since 2000 and specialises in all aspects, including health and safety, offering comprehensive and pragmatic commercial advice.

Sarah advises on all areas of employment law, contentious and non-contentious. She regularly advises on business restructuring, changes to terms and conditions of employment, redundancy and reorganisations. www.blakemorgan.co.uk/our-people/sarah-peacock/

Natalie Painter, Senior Solicitor – Blake Morgan

Natalie has experience on a wide range of HR and employment law matters including day-to-day employment law advice, disciplinary and grievance hearings, managing long-term sickness absence, drafting and negotiating settlement agreements on behalf of employers and employees, and drafting of contracts and staff handbooks.

Natalie also advises employers at all stages of Employment Tribunal proceedings and regularly provide bespoke training to clients on a variety of matters such as equal opportunities and employment law updates.

Matthew Butcher, Sales and Customer Account - Bournemouth and Poole College

I am responsible for the BASE team (Business, Apprenticeships, Skills and Employability) at The College, focusing on supporting our key business customers and helping new businesses maximise their skills through training and apprenticeships.
www.thecollege.co.uk

Tony Moss, Construction & Building Services - Apprenticeship recruitment - Bournemouth and Poole College

My key focus is to engage with Employers in the Construction & Building services sectors with a view to getting them to employ Apprentices. Adding to their Business and skill set and giving young people the opportunity of gaining the 1st foot on the ladder of their career.